

THE DOOR IS OPEN

A sneak peak at the Tourism Hamilton offices in the Lister Block

Tourism Hamilton is currently moving into their new space in the restored Lister Block. Complete with massive handmade steel doors, stunning lighting fixtures by local artists, a unique wood-look ceramic floor, an event room with a movable island of recycled glass, and many other creatively designed finishes, this new space in Hamilton's most famous heritage building is dressed to impress.

